WILL BUILD COKE OVENS ON TRACT IN ROSTRAYER

McKeesport Capitalists Complete Deal for Coal Land

IS NEAR BELLE VERNON

Engineers Surveying Ground and Work Will be Started Within Short Time

Engineers are in the ground and preparations are being made for the opening up of a coal tract of 188 acres a mile and a half back of Belle Vernon on Speers Run bank by Holmes Davis, and company of McKeesport. Thirty coke ovens are to be built. The coal lies in Rostraver township along the edge of Westmoreland county and is of the Pittsburgh seam. The deal for the coal was recently closed by J. H. Hillman, Jr., and associates of Pittsburgh from Robert Allen of Belle Vernon and J. H. Underwood of Roscoe, and the consideration was approximately $35,000.

Work will be rushed on the new plant. The contract will probably be let within a few days, or as soon as the engineers are able to get matters in shape. It will take three months or more to make an opening and to get the coke ovens erected. Approximately $25,000 will be spent in the new works.

The Belle Vernon coke plant will be the first to be built in this section of the Monongahela valley. The nearest ovens now are at Brownsville. Eventually the H. C. Frick Coke company will open up a huge tract of coal land fronting on the Monongahela river, four miles south of here, and will build a battery of coke ovens. This coal land was acquired by the Frick people last year together with considerable property rights of the Pittsburgh Coal company and its affiliated concern, the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company.

The Belle Vernon tract will be along a siding of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad. When the railroad was planning to put through a line from the Monongahela valley to the Dickerson Run, near Connellsville, the Belle Vernon route was one of two considered. The route chosen however was that leading from Fayette City and the line has not been opened to regular trade.

New Harness Shop.

The Farmers Supply Co., of 311 Fifth street have added a complete line of harness and a harness repair shop to their present equipment. Harness, robes and whips will be handled. J. W. Smith of Fairmont, W. Va., is in charge and all repair work is guaranteed. Don't forget about those buggy tires. A complete set of rubber tires for $12.50. Farmers Supply Co., 311 Fifth street. 73-12

Notice.

An invitation is extended to the public in general to witness the public installation of newly elected officers on Thursday evening in Charleroi Savings and Trust company Hall.

Asleep; Hit by Big Car

Bentleyville Man Almost Gets His Everlasting in Collision—Buggy Demolished

Samuel Miller, of Bentleyville, through falling asleep in his buggy, while on his way home from Monongahela Wednesday night at 10 o'clock nearly got his everlasting. As it is he is confined to the Memorial Hospital at Monongahela, suffering from injuries resulting from a big Pittsburgh-Charleroi car colliding with his vehicle. Miller was letting his horse take its own course, which happened to be the street car tracks. Unaware of the lumbering Miller, the car approached and unceremoniously dumped him out of his buggy and landed him many feet away, where he came to his senses. The buggy was demolished, but the horse was unhurt.

RATE THE SOURCE OF COMPLAINT

Discrimination Charged Against Pennsylvania Railroad

SHIP TO LOCAL FIRM

Complaint has been filed for clients by D. M. McCloskey, Esq., that the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., is discriminating unlawfully against Charleroi on shipments of grapes in carload lots from various points, in a protest addressed to the Interstate Commerce commission at Washington, D. C. The complaint is made under date of Oct. 15 and refers to dealings with Monack Bros., the local wholesale firm. It is as follows:

Complaint is hereby made that unlawful discrimination is made against Charleroi, Washington county, Pennsylvania, on shipments of grapes in carload lots from Michigan points and from Western New York and Northern Pennsylvania points under the following circumstances:

A representative of Monack Bros., fruit jobbers, was quoted a rate of 29 cents on grapes in baskets, carload lots from Paw Paw, Michigan, and adjacent points on the K. L. S. C. railway for Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Pittsburgh points. The quotation was given last week. The first of a number of carload shipments has arrived carrying a rate of 37 1-2 cents to Charleroi, Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania railroad delivery; upon complaint to the latter it develops that although rates are made on practically all other lines of freight it does not take Pittsburgh rates on grapes.

CONGRESSMAN NYE WILL SPEAK HERE

Minnesota Orator to Share Honors With Dr.

Henry Temple at Washington Party Rally Friday Night

Elaborate preparations are being made by the Charleroi Roosevelt and Johnson club for their big rally to be held here tomorrow night. Congressman Nye of Minnesota is to be one of the speakers, and Dr. Henry W. Temple of Washington, a candidate for Congress in this district is to be another. The meeting will be held at Turner Hall. Local Washington party men are making great efforts to work up enthusiasm for the meeting, which they consider will be one of the principal events of the present campaign made by the Charleroi Roosevelt and Johnson club. Many out of town people are expected to be here.

Dr. H. J. Repman, president of the Charleroi Roosevelt and Johnson club will preside. Congressman Nye has appeared at two meetings in this vicinity lately, one at Monessen and another at Monongahela. At both places he was heard by big crowds. Congressman Nye and Dr. Temple are expected to arrive in the afternoon and will be taken care of by Washington party leaders.

GREWSOME FIND IS MADE BY CARPENTERS

Body of Belle Vernon Man Discovered in New House at East Charleroi by Men as They Go to Work

The coroner's office of Westmoreland county is investigating the death of George Lucas, aged 63 of Belle Vernon whose body was found Wednesday in one of several new houses being erected on the John Irons place at East Charleroi. His body was found by carpenters as they were going to work on the house. His widow and three children at Monessen notified. It is expected that the verdict will be one of accidental death.

MONUMENT TO BE DEDICATED WITH MUCH FORMALITY ABOUT HIS DOOR THAT NO ONE ELSE COULD SEE

Gov. John K. Tener and his staff, the members of the commission that has erected the memorial for Pennsylvania soldiers interred at the National Cemetery at Culpeper, Va., and their guests left Harrisburg shortly before midnight Wednesday for the purpose of dedicating this afternoon at Culpeper the monument that has been erected there. About 100 guests accompanied the Governor, including many from Pittsburgh.

SHIELDS ILL SO HE GETS REHEARING

John E. Shields, former sheriff of Westmoreland county, now serving a sentence in the Western Penitentiary on charges of misdemeanor in office and allowing prisoners to escape, was Wednesday granted a re-hearing of his application for pardon by the State Board on representation by E. E. Robbins of Greensburg that he is seriously ill in the hospital of the Western Penitentiary.

LOCAL SOCIETY GIVES EUCHE

Wednesday evening's euchre of the L. C. B. A. was a very pleasant affair and largely attended. It was under the direction of Mrs. John Kuth, Mrs. Mark Wheeler and Mrs. Mary McCann. The favors were awarded to Miss Marie Conley, Mrs. Chas. Herron, Mrs. Fred Coates, Mrs. Mary McCann, Messrs John Much, Kenneth Cupps, Thos. McHough, and Will Riley. The next euchre will be held November 6th and will be in charge of Mrs. Wm. McBride, Mrs. Silverman, Mrs. Thos. Cavanaugh and Mrs. Fiedler.

Tonight Charleroi Lodge, No. 1080, I. O. O. F. will hold a public installation of officers in the Charleroi Savings and Trust company hall. District deputy J. W. Schlotter will have charge.

Penny carnival at P. H. C. hall Friday evening, October 18. Everybody invited. 73-12

REPUBLICAN LEADERS TO PREPARE FOR RALLY

Men Hurt in Queer Ways

One Struck on Head by Hand-Car Handle Dies—Oil Man Has Long Fall

One man is dead, another hurt probably fatally, while a third is in a serious condition as the result of accidents in Washington county Wednesday.

Frank Phillipscheck, a Pennsylvania Railroad section hand, was riding on a handcar near Manifold when the descending handle struck him on the head, causing death in a few minutes.

John D. Burk, an oil man, missed his footing and plunged headlong from the tubing board of an oil well derrick near Washington, falling 60 feet to the derrick floor. It is said he cannot recover.

Joseph Washner, a miner of Manifold, was caught in a fall of slate, his entire back being torn open so that internal organs were laid bare.

BOSTON RED SOX POPULAR

Local Fans Relieved by Final Score in World's Series

WATCH BULLETIN BOARD

Baseball fans over the country who from the ringing of the gong on the world's series quoted New York as victors and argued with long green, have a severe headache today. Many other who took stock in the Boston Red Sox are going to have a severe headache tomorrow, but from a different reason. Today the most famous people in the world are the members of the baseball organization whose address is Boston. This includes two young men who are under 24 years of age—"Smoky Joe" Wood and Hugh Bedient, star pitchers for the Bostonians.

Along with the rest of the world Charleroi is celebrating or not celebrating as the case may be. In this part of the "richest valley of the world" Boston seemed to have the lead, in sentiment anyway. The betting was slightly in favor of the Massachusetts tossers.

Crowds thronged Fifth street Wednesday to see the bulletins on the game posted from the Mail office. When the ninth inning came and the score was 1 to 1, the excitement knew no bounds. Then came a report in the tenth that the score was 2 to 1, favor New York and the game was over. Evidently some one must have gotten their wires crossed in the transmission of this message. County Chairman and Members of Committee Coming Friday

MONESSEN CLUB FORMED

Young Republicans Arrange to Attend Republican Demonstration October 30

County Chairman C. E. Carothers of this county and the county chairman and Republican leaders of the nearby counties have been invited to be present at a meeting of Republicans tomorrow night in the Bank of Charleroi hall, at which time arrangements will be for the Republican demonstration to be held here October 30. A committee from the Young Men's Marching club of Monessen, an organization perfected Wednesday night will be present.

The idea in inviting the chairman from other counties to be present is to give them a say as to what is to be done. The rally here is to be a hummer and really will rival that held at the time of the opening of the Tener campaign three years ago. The meeting tomorrow night will call forth the leading Republicans of the community.

The Young Men's Republican Marching club of Monessen was formed partly to enable them to participate in the Charleroi rally. Dr. T. B. Herron is the president and Frank Lane of the Monessen News is the secretary. B. F. Mentzer is treasurer. It is the intention of the organization to send 50 or 60 young men to Charleroi on the night of the 30th, together with a band to take part in the rally and demonstration to be held here. The marchers will carry umbrellas.

Controller John H. Moffitt is advertising for bids for the printing of 45,836 official and 11,901 sample ballots for use at the polls three weeks from today.

The ballots as shown by a "dummy" prepared by Commissioners Clerk Campbell, will be a complicated affair and a lot of voters are going to be fooled unless they exercise care in marking their ticket. The ballots will be very large, there being nine columns containing the names of 38 presidential electors of eight parties, with one blank column. The parties which will have candidates on the ticket are the Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist, Bull Moose, Industrial, Roosevelt Progressive, and Washington.

Below the columns containing the presidential electors come the names of the candidates for state treasurer, auditor general, congressman-at-large, representative in congress and three members of state legislature.

A GOOD SEASON.

No matter how it may be regarded
from an individual standpoint, Charleroi has had a good business season.
Collectively, the town has prospered,
and industrial and business conditions are infinitely better than they were a year ago. While there may be individuals inclined to dispute this statement, a general survey of the community will reveal the truth at a glance.

It is true that two large industries
that were formerly in operation here
have been idle during the past year,
but the town seems to have lost nothing by the shut down. There has been a re-adjustment, and the most of the people employed in these concerns have obtained employment elsewhere. There are more voters registered than ever before, and the school enrollment is larger than it was when both the concerns mentioned were in operation. If there are business places that are not doing as much trade as formerly, it is their own fault. Everybody comparatively is working and drawing pay,
and the ten thousand people here are satisfying their necessities and wants
as much as they ever did in the past.

This season has been a particularly good one for Charleroi. In addition to prosperous conditions there are many
hopeful signs for further progress,
and all that is desired now is for things to continue as they have this year.

MORE OF THEM NEEDED.

There are many high-thinking, patriotic men in the South who are not at all represented by the brawlers against pensions, who occupy so much of the stage. Among these men of the best type is ex-Gov. Glenn of North Carolina, a prominent Democrat. In an address before the Techners' Association at Pittsburg recently he said:

"What we need today is the men who are patriotic and not politicians.
Politicians use the people and the country for their own benefit and
gain, while the patriotic man is the one who makes sacrifices for his country. It is the patriotic person who will sacrifice his life for his country, while the politician will sacrifice his country for his gain.
Teachers, impress upon your children to be patriotic and love God.
The greatest shame in this country is the small, miserable pittance, the pension which is given to the weak-

of the South can not do nor share to-

war is long over now. The blue and gray stand united again."

If there were more sentiments like these there would no longer be a solid south pitted against a solid north. As ex-Governor Glenn truly says, patriots, not politicians are sorely needed at this particular time.

They had to carry her around

Because the skirt so closely fit
She could not walk at all.

She ate her meals from off a shelf
Because she dared not sit Down in a chair like other folks
For fear her skirt would split.

But Mary didn't kick at all;
It was just as she'd wish;
She couldn't hop around the house
Or wash or wipe a dish.

Well, it's over anyhow.
Whether that was political acumen for Wilson to quit campaigning after Roosevelt got hurt, or whether it was a real regard for what might be termed a square deal, we will probably never know.

A paper mightily supporting the

Perhaps that is not as timely now as it might be after November 5.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Before the honor luncheon for Gov-
Tener and others started at California Normal Tuesday evening, Congressman Thomas S. Crago of Waynesburg, who was to act as toastmaster and "Big Rufe" Kir-
berger, a former W. & J. football star fixed up a code of signals by which Rufe was to lead the cheering for speakers. At this kind of work Rufe is "some suds" and that is the reason Congressman Crago had him sitting in a good position where he could tip him off. Rufe is now a member of the Normal faculty.

After Mrs. Noss had given her talk on "The Faculty," Rufe barked
out at the signal of Congressman Crago, and to the utter astonishment
of those present:

"What's the matter with the faculty?"

Instantly the student body caught on.

"They're all right," was the answer
echoing from 300 throats.

"Say it again," yelled Rufe, and
they did. "Again," he demanded.

Prof. L. A. McVey was the next expected home this week.

speaker. He spoke of the alumni,
and as prearranged Congressman Crago tipped off Kirberger, expecting to hear McVey's name in return.
What was his astonishment when
the giant Rufe boomed forth:
"What's the matter with Congressman Crago?" The answer was enthusiastic.

"That's the second joke tonight," murmured the Congressman to Gov.
Tener as he arose to introduce the next speaker.

It was noticeable that there were no signals exchanged after that, although there were regular yells at the instance of Kirberger.

Hon. Henry Houck, Secretary of Internal Affairs in Pennsylvania, has few superiors in story-telling. At California last Tuesday night he was one of the speakers at the honor luncheon tendered. Through circumstances given but about ten minutes, he made the most of the time. The hosts were kept in an uproar. He is an old teacher and his subject was
"The Teacher," consequently he told a story about a teacher.

"This teacher," he said, "was one of those sour, dyspeptic affairs that
likes to take a pupil by surprise.
One day with a suddenness and direct-ness that was startling he drove this demand at a sharp-faced lad:

"Who wrote Hamlet?"

"I don't know. It wasn't me," the lad replied in fright.

"On the way home that night the teacher, who really did have a sense of humor even though he succeeded in hiding the fact pretty well stopped at the old 'Squire's' home to relate
the occurrence. The 'Squire' chuckled.

"Who's the boy?" he asked and
was told.

"Him! Well, I wouldn't be surprised if the little bugger did do it."

BANK OF ENGLAND

Tragic and Romantic Episodes in
Its Historic Career.

DEADLY BATTLE WITH A MOB.

The Bloody Climax to the Attempted
Raid by the Lord Gordon Rioters—A Financial Coup That Was Spoiled by
the Duchess of Marlborough.

No other banking institution has so romantic a history as that pertaining to the Bank of England, the "Old Lady
of Threadneedle Street."

One of the bloody episodes in the history of the bank is that connected with the story of Charles Walter Godfrey,
one of its early partners in the bank.
It appears that Godfrey while carrying the channel in the midst of a terrific storm and laden with £60,000 in drafts for the aid of King William, who was just then besieging Namur against the forces of Louis XIV., insisted upon his right to deliver the warrant for the money into the hands of the king, then in the trenches under hot fire. As he handed the document to the king, saying, in response to William's growl of remonstrance, "Am I, then, more exposed to danger than your majesty?"
a cannon ball swept away his head.

Not so very many years ago there stood over the massive fireplace in the directors' room of the bank three rusty specimens of the old "Brown Bess," together with a number of roughly shaped bullets. In these relics was embedded a picture of the November night in 1780 when the mob of Gordon rioters marched down from Newgate, setting fire to every Catholic chapel on the way and advancing with a force of 5,000 upon the bank itself.

The clerks, armed with muskets were unprovided with shot. Before them lay rows of leaden linkstands, suggesting the possibilities of a new
use. In less than half an hour the link-stands had been melted and turned into bullets. The muskets were loaded. At every window of the bank stood two marksmen, their guns trained on the mob below. Yet the rioters came on until they were within ten yards of the bank gates. Then sharp and clear above the frightful din rose
the order to fire, and from the windows poured a deadly volley. When the smoke finally cleared away 250
lay dead or dying in the open space
now covered by the esplanade of the Royal Exchange. The attacking army wavered, stopped, broke line and fled
and the Gordon riots were at an end.

During the first part of the reign of George II. it was the practice of all banks to give a receipt in payment of a deposit, the receipts being passed from hand to hand and serving the same purpose as the check of today.

At that time Childs' bank, a private concern, which had the backing of a great part of the English nobility, exhibited such signs of future greatness
that the Bank of England became greatly alarmed, especially in view of the fact that the "Old Lady's" notes were at a discount of 10 per cent. So little by little, through their agents,
the managers of the Bank of England
bought up every receipt bearing the Childs' signature, allowing the collections to accumulate each year until the time should be ripe, during a shortage of gold, to present the receipts in one great mass for payment. It was declared a certainty that Childs' would not be able to meet the demand and would thus be ruined.

The principal figure in the drama
that ensued was no other than the famous Sarah Jennings, in whom Childs'
bank found its staunchest supporter.
One night there came a wild clanging
at the bell of the great gate of the town of Blenheim—a clanging that soon awakened every one in the town. A white-faced, travel stained man staggered into the ducal hall, begging an audience with her grace. When the duchess, in her dressing gown, appeared, demanding to know the reason for this unseasonable visitation, the man explained that the Bank of England held
the Childs' receipts in the amount of £620,000, that those receipts would be presented for payment at noon following, that there was not at Childs' enough gold to meet them, that unless the demand could be satisfied with-
in eight hours Childs' was ruined and that there was but one person in the world—her grace—to whom they might turn.

Whereupon the redoubtable duchess sat down and wrote out a check, which she handed to the agent. It was an order on the Bank of England for the payment of £700,000. Had she instructed to take this check to the Bank of England and to say that if it hesitated for a single instant in paying it the duchess would proclaim it as a de-faulter.

At 12 o'clock that day there appeared at the Childs' counter an agent of the Bank of England bearing a big bag ful of receipts and blandly suggesting immediate payment. At the same moment the Childs' agent was in Threadneedle street receiving cash on the check of the duchess.

The cashiers at Childs' naturally took
their own time in scrutinizing the receipts, spending fully half an hour over the first batch alone. They were at the end of the first hundred when their messenger arrived. Then they quickened the procedure a little, and within ten minutes the Bank of England had been paid in its own coin. The net result was that Childs' was many thousands of pounds richer.—Harper's

Sick Women

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured many cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are five letters from southern women which prove
the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks to you and your great medicine. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time.

"Now I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what these medicines have done for me and I will always speak a good word for them."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Montgomery Co., Va.

LETTER FROM LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, La.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy feelings, backache and irregularities. I would get up in the morning feeling tired out and not fit to do anything.
"Since I have been taking your Compound and Blood Purifier I feel all right. Your medicines are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. GASTON BLOXDEAT, 1511 Polymnia St., New Orleans, La.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

Wauchula, Fla.—"Some time ago I wrote to you giving you my symptoms, headache, backache, bearing-down, and discomfort in walking, caused by female troubles.

"I got two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash and that was all I used to make me a well woman.
"I am satisfied that if I had done like a good many women, and not taken your remedies, I would have been a great sufferer. But I started in time with the right medicine and got well. It did not cost very much either. I feel that you are a friend to all women and I would rather use your remedies than have a doctor."—Mrs. MATTIE HONOR, Box 406, Wauchula, Florida.

LETTER FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Martinsburg, W. Va.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for my mother, daughter and myself.
"I have told dozens of people about it and my daughter says that when she hears a girl complaining with cramps, she tells her to take your Compound."—Mrs. MARY A. HOCKESSBERY, 712 N. 3rd St., Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Newport News, Va.—"About five years ago I was troubled with such pains and bloating every month that I would have to go to bed.

"A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. The medicine strengthened me in every way and my doctor approved of my taking it.

"I will be glad if my testimony will help some one who is suffering from female weakness."—Mrs. W. J. BLAYTON, 1029 Hampton Ave., Newport News, Va.

INDIANS TO MEET PITTSBURGHERS IN ANNUAL STRUGGLE

The famous Carlisle football team, headed by the World's greatest round athlete "Jim" Thorpe, will be the attraction at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, next Saturday, October 10, against the University of Pittsburgh team. A crowd numbering between 15,000 and 20,000 is expected. Gridiron fans are not only desirous of witnessing the performances of the crafty Indians, but want to see the great Thorpe in action. Thorpe, who will play left half back, won both the all-around championships at the Stockholm Olympic games and is recognized by all authorities as the most wonderful athlete ever developed in modern times. Last year he was chosen on football expert Walter Camp's All-American eleven.

University of Pittsburgh's players will be in the best of shape for the game and are confident of holding the Aborigines even. W. & J., Pitt's greatest rival, played them a 0-0 game two Saturdays ago, and the Blue and Golders are anxious to make equally as good a showing, although they will likely find the Redmen in such better physical condition than they were when they stacked up against the Red and Black. Coach Warner hasn't forgotten the setback which Pittsburgh handed him in 1909 when Captain "Tex" Richards' eleven trounced his pests to the tune of 14-3. Last year he secured partial revenge when Pitt was defeated 17-0, although the Blue and Gold lost little prestige by this, as Carlisle later humiliated Pennsylvania, Harvard and other big college teams.

The teams which represent the Steel City University on the gridiron this season is made up largely of young prep school stars who are playing their first year of college football. Only four veterans of the 1911 team, Captain Galvin, W. B. Smith, Leahy and Wagner, are eligible. This has proved a handicap in the early games with Ohio Northern, Westminster and Bucknell. The team is rounding in shape now, however, and after the week's hard secret practice before the Indian game, wise old "Joe" Tompson can be expected to put eleven men against the Aborigines who will play a real article of football. The make-up of the Varsity will not be decided until the day before the game.

The kick off will be at 3 o'clock. Tickets can be ordered by mail from L. B. Hurst, 1262 Frick Annex, Pittsburgh. The game will be played rain or shine, Forbes Field having 10,000 covered seats for accommodation of the spectators in case of bad weather.

New York from which it was quoted a Pittsburgh rate of 22 cents. These shipments are now arriving: Pennsylvania Railroad delivery and are billed through to Charleroi, Pennsylvania at 30 cents the same explanation being given, to wit: That Charleroi does not take Pittsburgh from the same territory to Monessen, Pennsylvania directly opposite Charleroi, likewise in the Pittsburgh district, but Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad delivery. These latter shipments are being billed Pittsburgh rate.

In substance complaint is herein made that the Pennsylvania railroad is discriminating against Charleroi, Pennsylvania, in refusing to bill grapes in carloads lots at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, rates although Charleroi, Pennsylvania is admittedly in the Pittsburgh district.

Charleroi has a new industry. This is a bakery which has been established for the express purpose of producing a higher grade of products than is usually carried. It has been opened by Ray Emrick, who is assistant at Wagner's ice cream establishment on McKean avenue, where the products of the bakery are for sale. The new bakery will produce high grade articles for special occasions, such as fancy cakes and delicacies for receptions and parties, banquets and other social occasions. It will also execute special commissions on short notice. The practical work is in charge of John Hawkins of Pittsburgh. Mr. Hawkins is an expert in his line, having served four years as special baker for W. R. Kuhn at the Rittenhouse in Pittsburgh. This establishment will supply a long-felt want in Charleroi, as all such orders were heretofore mostly filled from out-of-town.

WILL BUILD COKE OVENS ON TRACT IN ROSTRAVER

McKeesport Capitalists Complete Deal for Coal Land

IS NEAR BELLE VERNON

Engineers Surveying Ground and Work Will be Started Within Short Time

Engineers are on the ground and preparations are being made for the opening up of a coal tract of 188 acres a mile and a half back of Belle Vernon on Speers Run bank by Holmes Davis, and company of McKeesport. Thirty coke ovens are to be built. The coal lies in Rostraver township along the edge of Westmoreland county and is of the Pittsburgh seam. The deal for the coal was recently closed by J. H. Hillman, Jr., and associates of Pittsburgh from Robert Allen of Belle Vernon and J. H. Underwood of Roscoe, and the consideration was approximately $35,000.

Work will be rushed on the new plant. The contract will probably be let within a few days, or as soon as the engineers are able to get matters in shape. It will take three months or more to make an opening and to get the coke ovens erected. Approximately $25,000 will be spent in the new works.

The Belle Vernon coke plant will be the first to be built in this section of the Monongahela valley. The nearest ovens now are at Brownsville. Eventually the H. C. Frick Coke company will open up a huge tract of coal land fronting on the Monongahela river, four miles south of here, and will build a battery of coke ovens. This coal land was acquired by the Frick people last year together with considerable property rights of the Pittsburgh Coal company and its affiliated concern, the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company.

The Belle Vernon tract will be along a siding of the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad. When the railroad was planning to put through a line from the Monongahela valley to Dickinson Run, near Connellsville, the Belle Vernon route was one of two considered. The route chosen however was that leading from Fayette City and the line has not been opened to regular trade.

Asleep; Hit by Big Car

Bentleyville Man Almost Gets His Everlasting in Collision—Buggy Demolished

Samuel Miller, of Bentleyville, through falling asleep in his buggy, while on his way home from Monongahela Wednesday night at 10 o'clock nearly got his everlasting. As it is he is confined to the Memorial Hospital at Monongahela, suffering from injuries resulting from a big Pittsburgh Charleroi car colliding with his vehicle. Miller was letting his horse take its own course, which happened to be the street car tracks. Unaware of the lumbering Miller, the car approached and unceremoniously dumped him out of his buggy and landed him many feet away, where he came to his senses. The buggy was demolished, but the horse was unhurt.

RATE THE SOURCE OF COMPLAINT

Discrimination Charged Against Pennsylvania Railroad SHIP TO LOCAL FIRM

Complaint has been filed for clients by D. M. McCloskey, Esq., that the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. is discriminating unlawfully against Charleroi on shipments of grapes in carload lots from various points, in a protest addressed to the Interstate Commerce commission at Washington, D. C. The complaint is made under date of Oct. 15 and refers to dealings with Monack Bros., the local wholesale firm. It is as follows:

Complaint is hereby made that unlawful discrimination is made against Charleroi, Washington county, Pennsylvania, on shipments of grapes in carload lots from Michigan points and from Western New York and Northern Pennsylvania points under the following circumstances:

A representative of Monack Bros. fruit jobbers, was quoted a rate of 23 cents on grapes in baskets, carload lots from Paw Paw, Michigan, and adjacent points on the K. L. S. C. railway for Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Pittsburgh points. The quotation was given last week. The first of a number of carload shipments has arrived carrying a rate of 37 1-2 cents to Charleroi, Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania railroad delivery; upon complaint to the latter it develops that although rates are made on practically all other lines of freight it does not take Pittsburgh rates on grapes.

GREWSOME FIND IS MADE BY CARPENTERS

The coroner's office of Westmoreland county is investigating the death of George Lucas, aged 63 of Belle Vernon whose body was found Wednesday in one of several new houses being erected on the John Irons place at East Charleroi. His inanimate form was found by carpenters as they were going to work on the house. His widow and three children at Belle Vernon survive, but he is said to have been living apart from them for some time.

It is asserted that Lucas has been living as best he could and that he had no steady occupation. It is supposed that hungry and cold, he wandered into the building at East Charleroi, and fell into a sleep from which he never awakened. When found he had probably been dead for hours. The body was removed to a morgue at Belle Vernon and the Westmoreland county deputy coroner at Monessen notified. It is expected that the verdict will be one of accidental death.

MONUMENT TO BE DEDICATED WITH MUCH FORMALITY

Gov. John K. Tener and his staff, the members of the commission that has erected the memorial for Pennsylvania soldiers interred at the National Cemetery at Calpeper, Va., and their guests left Harrisburg shortly before midnight Wednesday for the purpose of dedicating this monument that has been erected there. About 100 guests accompanied the Governor, including many from Pittsburgh.

SAW WILD ANIMALS ABOUT HIS DOOR THAT NO ONE ELSE COULD SEE

Frank O. Johnson from Donora was adjudged insane Wednesday by a commission composed of Dr. D. H. Edwards, Attorney Owen C. Underwood and Louis Grossman, who visited him at the jail in Washington. Johnson was brought in from Donora where he had been arrested because of his peculiar actions. He was under the hallucination that wild animals were gathered about his door and still insists that they are there. When the transcript was being made out at the justice's office he grabbed the paper and tore it in bits. At times he refuses to talk and stares at the ceiling. He will be taken to Northside hospital for the insane Thursday by Warden Hopkins.

SHIELDS ILL SO HE GETS REHEARING

Men Hurt in Queer Ways

One Sauck on Head by Hand-Car Handle Dies—Oil Man Has Long Fall

One man is dead, another hurt probably fatally, while a third is in a serious condition as the result of accidents in Washington county Wednesday.

Frank Philpotts, a Pennsylvania Railroad section hand, was riding on a handcar near Manifold when the descending handle struck him on the head, causing death in a few minutes.

John D. Burk, an oil man, missed his footing and plunged headlong from the tubing board of an oil well derrick near Washington, falling 60 feet to the derrick floor. It is said he cannot recover.

Joseph Washner, a miner of Manifold, was caught in a fall of slate, his entire back being torn open so that internal organs were laid bare.

BOSTON RED SOX POPULAR

WATCH BULLETIN BOARD

Baseball fans over the country who from the ringing of the gong on the world's series quoted New York as victors and argued with long green, have a severe headache today. Many other who took stock in the Boston Red Sox are going to have a severe headache tomorrow, but from a different reason. Today the most famous people in the world are the members of the baseball organization whose address is Boston. This includes two young men who are under 24 years of age—"Smoky Joe" Wood and Hugh Bedient, star pitchers for the Bostonians.

Along with the rest of the world Charleroi is celebrating or not celebrating as the case may be. In this part of the "richest valley of the world" Boston seemed to have the lead, in sentiment anyway. The betting was slightly in favor of the Massachusetts tossers.

Crowds thronged Fifth street Wednesday to see the bulletins on the game posted from the Mail office. When the ninth inning came and the score was 1 to 1, the excitement knew no bounds. Then came a report in the tenth that the score was 2 to 1, in favor New York and the game was over. Evidently some one must have gotten their wires crossed in the transmission of this message. ## MONESSEN CLUB FORMED

County Chairman C. E. Carothers of this county and the man and Republican leaders of the nearby counties have been invited to be present at a meeting of Republicans tomorrow night in the Bank of Charleroi hall, at which time arrangements will be for the Republican demonstration to be held here October 30. A committee from the Young Men's Marching club of Monessen, an organization perfected Wednesday night will be present.

The idea in inviting the chairman from other counties to be present is to give them a say as to what is to be done. The rally here is to be a hummer and really will rival that held at the time of the opening of the Tener campaign three years ago. The meeting tomorrow night will call forth the leading Republicans of the community.

The Young Men's Republican Marching club of Monessen was formed partly to enable them to participate in the Charleroi rally. Dr. T. B. Herron is the president and Frank Lane of the Monessen News is the secretary. B. F. Mentzer is treasurer. It is the intention of the organization to send 50 or 60 young men to Charleroi on the night of the 30th, together with a band to take part in the rally and demonstration to be held here. The marchers will carry umbrellas.

Controller John H. Moffitt is advertising for bids for the printing of 45,836 official and 11,901 sample ballots for use at the polls three weeks from today.

The ballots as shown by a "dummy" prepared by Commissioners' Clerk Campbell, will be a complicated affair and a lot of voters are going to be fooled unless they exercise care in marking their ticket. The ballots will be very large, there being nine columns containing the names of 38 presidential electors of eight parties, with one blank column. The parties which will have candidates on the ticket are the Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist, Bull Moose, Industrial, Roosevelt Progressive, and Washington.

Below the columns containing the presidential electors come the names of the candidates for state treasurer, auditor general, congressman-at-large, representative in congress and three members of state legislature.

A GOOD SEASON.

No matter how it may be regarded
 from an individual standpoint, Char-
 leroi has had a good business season.
 Collectively, the town has prospered,
 and industrial and business conditions
 are infinitely better than they were a year ago. While there may be individuals inclined to dispute this
 statement, a general survey of the community will reveal the truth at a glance.

It is true that two large industries
 that were formerly in operation here
 have been idle during the past year,
 but the town seems to have lost
 nothing by the shut down. There has been a re-adjustment, and the most
 of the people employed in these concerns have obtained employment
 elsewhere. There are more voters registered than ever before, and the school enrolment is larger than it was when both the concerns mentioned were in operation. If there are business places that are not doing as much trade as formerly, it is
 their own fault. Everybody comparatively is working and drawing pay,
 and the ten thousand people here are
 satisfying their necessities and wants
 as much as they ever did in the past.
 This season has been a particularly good one for Charleroi. In addition to prosperous conditions there are many
 hopeful signs for further progress,
 and all that is desired now is for
 things to continue as they have this
 year.

MORE OF THEM NEEDED.

There are many high-thinking, patriotic men in the South who are not
 at all represented by the brawlers
 against pensions, who occupy so much of the stage. Among these men of the best type is ex-Gov. Glenn, of North Carolina, a prominent Democrat. In an address before the Techners' Association at Pittsburg recently he said:

"What we need today is the men
 who are patriotic and not politicians.
 Politicians use the people and the
 country for their own benefit and
 gain, while the patriotic man is the one who makes sacrifices for his
 country, while the politician will
 sacrifice his country for his gain."

These men, who are patriotic and not politicians, are the ones who will sacrifice their lives for their
 country, while the politician will
 sacrifice his country for his gain.
 These men, who are patriotic and
 not politicians, are the ones who
 will sacrifice their lives for their
 country, while the politician will
 sacrifice his country for his gain.

A rah-rah boy, bold and gay,

 war. I am only sorry that we people of the South can not do nor share toward giving those brave men enough to make their last days happy. The war is long over now. The blue and
 gray stand united again."

If there were more sentiments like
 these there would no longer be a
 solid south pitted against a solid
 north. As ex-Governor Glenn truly
 says, patriots, not politicians are
 sorely needed at this particular time.

ELECTRIC SPARKS

Wonder why it is that you never

 The country mourns for Roosevelt's mishap but not for his ambition.
 Mary's Skirt.
 Mary had a little skirt,
 And it was built so tight
 She had to hire a chambermaid
 To peel it off at night.

They had to carry her around
 And lean her 'gainst the wall,
 Because the skirt so closely fit
 She could not walk at all.
 She ate her meals from off a shelf
 Because she dared not sit Down in a chair like other folks
 For fear her skirt would split.
 But Mary didn't kick at all,
 It was just as she'd wish;
 She couldn't hop around the house
 Or wash or wipe a dish.

The Normal has added about fourteen pages to its history.
 A profitless occupation is being the husband of a successful actress.
 Well, it's over anyhow.
 Whether that was political acumen
 for Wilson to quit campaigning after Roosevelt got hurt, or whether it was a real regard for what might be termed a square deal, we will probably never know.

A paper militantly supporting the Colonel refers to the attempt to shoot him as "Roosevelt's Assassination." Perhaps that is not as timely now as it might be after November 5.

The fortunes of war are the moving

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Before the honor luncheon for Gov.
 Tener and others started at California Normal Tuesday evening,
 Congressman Thomas S. Crago of Waynesburg, who was to act as
 toastmaster and "Big Rufe" Kir-
 berger, a former W. & J. football
 star fixed up a code of signals by
 which Rufe was to lead the cheering for speakers. At this kind of work Rufe is "some suds" and that is the reason Congressman Crago had
 him sitting in a good position where he could tip him off. Rufe is now a member of the Normal faculty.

After Mrs. Noss had given her
 talk on "The Faculty," Rufe barked
 out at the signal of Congressman Crago, and to the utter astonishment
 of those present:

"What's the matter with the faculty?"
 Instantly the student body caught
 on.
 "They're all right," was the answer
 echoing from 300 throats.
 "Say it again," yelled Rufe, and
 they did. "Again," he demanded,
 they did. "Again," he demanded,
 they did. "Again," he demanded,
 they did.

speaker. He spoke of the alumni,
 and as prearranged Congressman Crago tipped off Kirberger, expecting to hear McVey's name in return.
 What was his astonishment when
 the giant Rufe boomed forth:
 "What's the matter with Congressman Crago?" The answer was enthusiastic.
 "That's the second joke tonight,"
 murmured the Congressman to Gov.
 Tener as he arose to introduce the
 next speaker.

It was noticeable that there were
 no signals exchanged after that, although there were regular yells at
 the instance of Kirberger.

Hon. Henry Houck, Secretary of
 Internal Affairs in Pennsylvania, has few superiors in story-telling. At California last Tuesday night he was one of the speakers at the honor
 luncheon tendered. Through circumstances given but about ten minutes,
 he made the most of the time. The hosts were kept in an uproar. He is an old teacher and his subject was
 "The Teacher," consequently he told
 a story about a teacher.

"This teacher," he said, "was one
 of those sour, dyspeptic affairs that
 likes to take a pupil by surprise.
 One day with a suddenness and direct-
 ness that was startling he drove this
 demand at a sharp-faced lad:

"Who wrote Hamlet?"
 "I don't know. It wasn't me," the lad replied in fright.

"On the way home that night the
 teacher, who really did have a sense of humor even though he succeeded
 in hiding the fact pretty well stopped
 at the old 'Squire's' home to relate
 the occurrence. The 'Squire' chuckled.
 "Who's the boy?" he asked and
 was told.

"Him! Well, I wouldn't be surprised if the little bugger did do it."

BANK OF ENGLAND

Tragic and Romantic Episodes In
 its historic Career.

DEADLY BATTLE WITH A MOB.

The Bloody Climax to the Attempted
 Raid by the Lord Gordon Rioters—A Financial Coup That Was Spoiled by
 the Duchess of Marlborough.

No other banking institution has so
 romantic a history as that pertaining
 to the Bank of England, the "Old Lady
 of Threadneedle Street."

One of the bloody episodes in the history of the bank is that embraced in the story of Charles Walter Godfrey,
 one of its early partners in the bank.
 It appears that Godfrey while crossing the channel in the midst of a terrific storm and laden with 200,000 in debts
 for the aid of King William, who was
 just then besieging Namur against the
 forces of Louis XIV., insisted upon his
 right to deliver the warrant for the
 money into the hands of the king then
 in the trenches under hot fire. As he handed the document to the king, saying, in response to William's growl of
 remonstrance, "Am I, then, more ex-
 a cannon ball swept away his head.

Not so very many years ago there
 stood over the massive fireplace in the
 directors' room of the bank three rusty
 specimens of the old "Brown Bess," together with a number of roughly
 shaped bullets. In these relics was embodied a picture of the November night in 1780 when the mob of Gordon rioters marched down from Newgate, setting fire to every Catholic chapel on
 the way and advancing with a force of 5,000 upon the bank itself.

The clerks, armed with muskets,
 were unprovided with shot. Before them lay rows of leaden inkstands,
 suggesting the possibilities of a new
 use. In less than half an hour the ink-stands had been melted and turned into bullets. The muskets were loaded. At every window of the bank
 stood two marksmen, their guns trained
 on the mob below. Yet the rioters
 came on until they were within ten yards of the bank gates. Then sharp
 and clear above the frightful din rose
 the order to fire, and from the windows poured a deadly volley. When
 the smoke finally cleared away 200
 lay dead or dying in the open space
 now covered by the esplanade of the Royal Exchange. The attacking army
 wavered, stopped, broke line and fled,
 and the Gordon riots were at an end.

During the first part of the reign of
 George II. it was the practice of all
 banks to give a receipt in payment of
 a deposit, the receipts being passed
 from hand to hand and serving the
 same purpose as the check of today.

At that time Childs' bank, a private
 concern, which had the backing of a great part of the English nobility, exhibited such signs of future greatness
 that the Bank of England became greatly alarmed, especially in view of the fact that the "Old Lady's" notes were at a discount of 10 per cent. So little by little, through their agents,
 the managers of the Bank of England
 bought up every receipt bearing the Childs' signature, allowing the collections to accumulate each year until the
 time should be ripe, during a shortage of gold, to present the receipts to the great mass for payment. It was deemed a certainty that Childs' would not be able to meet the demand and would thus be ruined.

The principal figure in the drama
 that ensued was no other than the famous Sarah Jennings, in whom Childs'
 bank found its staunchest supporter.
 One night there came a wild clanging
 at the bell of the great gate of the town of Blenheim—a clanging that soon awakened every one in the town. A white faced, travel stained man staggered into the ducal hall, begging an audience with her grace. When the duchess, in her dressing gown, appeared, demanding to know the reason for this unseemly visitation, the man explained that the Bank of England held
 the Childs' receipts in the amount of £620,000, that those receipts would be
 presented for payment at noon following, that there was not at Childs' enough gold to meet them, that unless the demand could be satisfied with-
 in eight hours Childs' was ruined and
 world—her grace—to whom they might turn.

Whereupon the redoubtable duchess
 sat down and wrote out a check, which
 she handed to the agent. It was an order on the Bank of England for the payment of £700,000. Her grace was instructed to take this check to the Bank of England and to say that if it hesitated for a single instant in paying it the duchess would proclaim it as a de-famer.

At 12 o'clock that day there appeared at the Childs' counter an agent of the Bank of England bearing a big bag-
 ful of receipts and blandly suggesting
 immediate payment. At the same moment the Childs' agent was in Thread-
 needle street receiving cash on the
 check of the duchess.

The cashiers at Childs' naturally took
 their own time in scrutinizing the receipts, spending fully half an hour over
 the first batch alone. They were at the

messenger arrived. Then they quickened the procedure a little, and within
 ten minutes the Bank of England had been paid in its own coin. The net result was that Childs' was many thousands of pounds richer.—Harper's.

Sick Women

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain
 remedy had cured many cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also
 benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are five letters from southern women which prove
 the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks to you and your great medicine. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me
 alone for five minutes at a time.

Now I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what these medicines have done for me and I will always speak a good word for them."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Montgomery Co., Va.

LETTER FROM LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, La.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was troubled with hot flashes, weak and dizzy feelings, backache and irregularities. I would get up in the morning feeling tired out and not fit to do anything.
 "Since I have been taking your Compound and Blood Purifier I feel all right. Your medicines are worth their weight in gold."—Mrs. GASTON BLONDEAU, 1541 Polymnia St., New Orleans, La.

LETTER FROM FLORIDA.

Wauchula, Fla.—"Some time ago I wrote to you giving you my symptoms, headache, backache, bearing-down, and discomfort in walking, caused by female troubles.

"I got two bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of Sanative Wash and that was all I used to make me a well woman.
 "I am satisfied that if I had done like a good many women, and had not taken your remedies, I would have been a great sufferer. But I started in time with the right medicine and got well. It did not cost very much either. I feel that you are a friend to all women and I would rather use your remedies than have a doctor."—Mrs. MATTIE HODNOT, Box 406, Wauchula, Florida.

LETTER FROM WEST VIRGINIA.

Martinsburg, W. Va.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done wonders for my mother, daughter and myself.
 "I have told dozens of people about it and my daughter says that when she hears a girl complaining with cramps, she tells her to take your Compound."—Mrs. MARY A. HOCKENBERRY, 712 N. 3rd St., Martinsburg, W. Va.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM VIRGINIA.

Newport News, Va.—"About five years ago I was troubled with such pains and bloating every month that I would have to go to bed.

"A friend told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I soon found relief. The medicine strengthened me in every way and my doctor approved of my taking it.

 from female weakness."—Mrs. W. J. BLATTON, 1029 Hampton Ave., Newport News, Va.

HIDEOUS PUNISHMENTS.

Murderers Were Once Buried Alive Tied to the Victims.

Old time punishment for offenses at sea was most severe. The code of the time of Elizabeth I. provided for hanging up for the government of his feet on the cross, provided "that whose killed any person on shipboard should be tied with him that was slain and thrown into the sea. And if he killed him on the land he should in like manner be tied with the party slain and be buried with him to the earth."

In Elizabeth's time a thief was to be ducked three times, towed ashore at the stern of a boat and marooned with a loaf of bread and a can of beer. Murder was punishable by the culprit's being hanged by his heels "until his brains were beaten out against the ship's side."

The penalties imposed for sleeping on watch were progressive. For the first offense the man was to be "beaded" with a bucket of water; on the next occasion he was to be strung up by his wrists and to have two buckets of water poured into his sleeves; the third time he would be loaded with weights and bound to the mast, and "for the fourth time he was to be hanged to the bolsprie, with a can a sharp knife, and so to hang and choose whether he would cutte him self down and fall into the sea or hang still and starve."

Among the rules issued by Raleigh for the governing of his South American expedition in 1617 was that no man should be allowed to gamble for his arms or clothes "on the pain of being disarmed and made a swabber of the ship." A general punishment for blasphemy at this time was for the offender to be bound to the mainmast with an iron bit between his teeth, the alternative being a scraping of the tongue. All sorts of odd and frequently hideous punishments are to be found described in old manuscripts. In 1775 a man found drunk aboard or ashore was taken care of until the following morning, when in the presence of the ship's company he was presented with a pint of salt water which he had to drink.

The dreaded "cat" is probably the best known of these old naval punishments. Whipping was provided for at least as long ago as the fifteenth century, and in Drake's time the regular flogging of the ship's boys in the boatswain on Monday morning was regarded as the only means of inspiring a fair wind for the rest of the week. —Chicago News.

A GENEROUS DONOR.

The Double Action Trick That Was Told by C. L. Smith.

Old time legends were much more attractive than those of today. There is nothing adventures about the old, untold legends of Aged and Old. For as there was about such a man as a tale. Here is an anecdote of which Cartouche was the hero.

One evening he was crossing the Pont Neuf in Paris when he saw a poor wretch about to jump over the parapet into the Seine. The beggar stopped him and asked why he wanted to kill himself. The wretch said he was informed that his name was on the list of bankruptcies and that he preferred facing death to facing his creditors.

Cartouche was touched and told the man to call his creditors together on the morrow and they should be paid in full.

The creditors assembled. Cartouche went over their accounts, paid them all, got their receipts and said goodbye to his grateful beneficiary.

It is almost needless to add that when the creditors left Cartouche met them and relieved them of all he had given.—Exchange.

Legend of the Sunken Bells.

Somewhere beneath the soil of Sussex, England, there lies a peal of bells, while in the church near by a solitary bell calls to prayer. In the middle ages, it is said, a certain valiant knight wished to present to the church a peal of bells that should be of use and perpetuate his memory as well, but the vessel that brought them careened on approaching the harbor, and the bells fell out and sank into the mud. Thereupon the donor declared: "Never shall the church have a chime until that peal I give it be dragged from the sea by a team of four milk

If you don't know much about California Homes and FARMS you owe it to yourself to learn NOW!

CATTLE CROSSING OVER IRRIGATING CANAL.

HOME and social life in Northern California is the most pleasant because there are more bright days than in Southern Italy, and there is every convenience for bringing people together.

FARMS in the Sacramento Valley produce many more times net profit to the acre than Eastern farms because the soil is the best, sun shines every day, and there is plenty of good water for irrigating, with proper drainage.

ORANGES, potatoes, alfalfa and all fruits, grains, grasses and vegetables mature earlier in Northern California than in any part of the world.

STOCK and POULTRY are easier to raise and produce more because the climate is healthful and green feed grows in abundance.

MARKETS are very near, with cheap railroad and river transportation, making financial success sure.

If interested, we urge you to write us today and learn of people who are making big money there now.

Let us know what you wish most to be informed about and give instructive reply.

Don't delay, every day now sees new settlers moving on this land it is ready for seed, and the best farms go first.

Wilson Coming to Washington. Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic candidate for president, is expected to be at Washington tomorrow. His visit will not be a political one, and he comes to assist President Moffat in the new physical building of W. & J. college.

Citizens Can Burn Leaves.

Monongahela's street appropriation fund is low, and on that account permission has been granted to citizens to burn leaves on the streets between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. This will save the expense of sweeping them up or hauling them away.

May Get City Charter.

The Monessen Board of Trade has an expansion committee that is investigating the possible annexation of the East Monessen plan, as well as a legislative committee that is looking into the matter of a city charter. It is possible that Monessen will make more annexations and apply for a charter for a city of the third class.

INDIANS TO MEET PITTSBURGERS IN ANNUAL STRUGGLE

The famous Carlisle football team, headed by the World's greatest all-around athlete "Jim" Thorpe, will be the attraction at Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, next Saturday, October 19 against the University of Pittsburgh team. A crowd numbering between 15,000 and 20,000 is expected. Gridiron fans are not only desirous of witnessing the performances of the crafty Indians, but want to see the great Thorpe in action. Thorpe, who will play left half back, won both the all-around championships at the Stockholm Olympic games and is recognized by all authorities as the most wonderful athlete ever developed in modern times. Last year he was chosen on football expert Walter Camp's All-American eleven.

University of Pittsburgh's players will be in the best of shape for the game and are confident of holding the Aborigines even. W. & J. Pitt's team played a two game two Saturdays ago, and the Blue and Golders are anxious to make equally as good a showing, although they will likely find the Redmen in such better physical condition than they were when they stacked up against the Red and Black. Coach Warner hasn't forgotten the setback which Pittsburgh handed him in 1909 when Captain "Tex" Richards' eleven trounced his pests to the tune of 14-3. Last year he secured a partial revenge when Pitt was defeated 17-0, although the Blue and Gold lost little prestige by this, as Carlisle later humiliated Pennsylvania, Harvard and other big college teams.

The teams which represents the Steel City University on the gridiron this season is made up largely of young prep school stars who are playing their first year of college football. Only four veterans of the 1911 team, Captain Galvin, W. B. Smith, Leahy and Wagner, are eligible. This has proved a handicap in the early games with Ohio Northern, Westminster and Bucknell. The team is rounding in shape now, however, and after the week's hard secret practice before the Indian game, wise old "Joe" Tompson can be expected to put eleven men against the Aborigines who will play a real article of football. The make-up of the "Varsity" will not be decided until the day before the game.

The kick off will be at 3 o'clock. Tickets can be ordered by mail from L. B. Hurst, 1262 Frick Annex, Pittsburgh. The game will be played rain or shine, Forbes Field having 10,000 covered seats for accommodation of the spectators in case of bad weather.

RATE THE SOURCE OF COMPLAINT

(Continued from First Page) New York from which it was quoted a Pittsburgh rate of 22 cents. These shipments are now arriving Pennsylvania Railroad delivery and are billed through to Charleroi, Pennsylvania at 30 cents the same explanation being given, to wit: That Charleroi does not take Pittsburgh from the same territory to Monessen, Pennsylvania directly opposite Charleroi, likewise in the Pittsburgh district, but Pittsburgh and Lake Erie railroad delivery. These latter shipments are being billed Pittsburgh rate.

BOSTON RED SOX POPULAR

(Continued from First Page) crowds disappeared, but the end was not yet. Within 15 minutes the wires were again buzzing, and the correct score was announced in proper shape. It caused a lot of relief to some and a load of sorrow to others. The betting of the world's series was generally speaking on Boston, but for yesterday's game with Matthewson pitching against a youngster like Bedient, New York was the favorite.

NEW BAKERY IS STARTED HERE BY LOCAL MAN

Charleroi has a new industry. This is a bakery which has been established for the express purpose of producing a higher grade of products than is usually carried. It has been opened by Ray Emrick, who is assistant at Wagner's ice cream establishment on McKean avenue, where the products of the bakery are for sale. The new bakery will produce high grade articles for special occasions, such as fancy cakes and delicacies for receptions and parties, banquets and other social occasions. It will also execute special commissions on short notice. The practical work is in charge of John Hawkins of Pittsburgh. Mr. Hawkins is an expert in his line, having served four years as special baker for W. R. Kuhn at the Rittenhouse in Pittsburgh. This establishment will supply a long-felt want in Charleroi, as all such orders were heretofore mostly filled from out-of-town.

Miss Remington

Says:

"I can get more clear, legible copies at one writing from RED SEAL than from any other carbon paper."

Miss Remington operates nearly a million typewriters, and she ought to know.

No other carbon paper man-folds like RED SEAL, or gives such bright, clear impressions, or such good, all-around service.

And, of course, it follows that no other sells like RED SEAL.
